POINTING WITH PRIDE

To our next major production—THE TAMING OF THE SHREW. Only a man would have written this and only Shakespeare could have written it so well. It is the story of the willful and ungovernable Katherine, subdued by a husband who assumes a temper even more willful and ungovernable than hers. All this happened before mother learned to drive the car or insisted on writing checks. Though many of the situations are pure farce, the strongest scenes are strikingly realistic. George Bolton, student of B. Iden Payne (who, as you know, is the director of the Stratford Theatre) is our director. For three years as a member of the Globe Theatre Company, he played the Fairs and toured the Mid-West and the Pacific Coast, appearing during that time in more than three thousand performances of the fifteen shows in their repertoire. Mr. Bolton is a better than good director, and we are lucky to have him in Tacoma, willing to do a show for us. The cast is chosen. You can look forward to one of the funniest plays you have ever attended. These are the dates—January 28, 29, 30, 31; February 4, 5, 6, 7.

A LASTING MEMORIAL

It is the wish of the Little Theatre of Tacoma to perpetuate the memory of the late Marjory Gallwas, whose inspiration and enthusiastic zeal made possible this building.

On a table in the foyer, your contribution (no matter how small) will be received most gratefully.
